

בְּיָמֵינוּ לְבָרְכֶם וְלְשַׁבְּחֶם

A calligraphy chart on a dark background. At the top, the words קִרְעַת and שְׁטַח are written in large, red, stylized letters. Below each word, the individual letters are broken down into their constituent strokes, with small red arrows and numbers indicating the direction and order of the pen strokes. The words קִרְעַת and שְׁטַח are repeated in smaller sizes. To the right, the words קָהַל, רִבֵּהוּ, and עָמַר are written in large red letters. Below these words, the Hebrew phrase אֱלֹהֵינוּ יְהוָה יְהוָה is written in smaller red letters. The chart is used for teaching the structure and stroke order of specific Hebrew characters.

A calligraphy chart on a dark background. At the top, a decorative sword is positioned horizontally. Below the sword, the words עֲלֵה עֲלֵה and עָלְהוּ עָלְהוּ are written in large, red, stylized letters. The letters are highly decorative, featuring pointed serifs and intricate flourishes. Small red diamonds are placed below the words, likely to indicate alignment or decorative placement. The chart is used for teaching the structure and stroke order of specific Hebrew characters.
